Main activity of the agency:

- Translation services of 27 world languages
- Translation services certified by a court interpreter
- Teaching foreign languages

We approach every translation with special attention, with every translation going through additional revision to insure for the client the quality and correctness of the translation.

We evaluate the price of a translation without any commitment on the part of the client, and all submitted materials are marked as "trade secret". All our business associates sign a document respecting the confidentiality of the submitted document.

Court Interpreter Translations

A court interpreter translation is a translation issued by the relevant court interpreter, certifying by his stamp the sameness of the translation and the original document. Translations certified by a court interpreter from Croatian, Bosnian, Serbian into foreign languages and vice versa...

A translation can be ordered in person, scanned (e-mail) or sent by mail to our address. Whichever way you choose, the material will be translated and delivered to your address. The translation is delivered free of charge.

Delivery of court interpreter translations

Court interpreter translations are delivered via mail to the client's address or accepted personally in the agency's office, in accordance with the agreement.

The reference list of the agency is delivered on demand of the client.

Price list

Given the quantity of our work activity with almost every West-European language, the agency has set the same price for all translations, regardless of the direction of the translation. Exceptions are possible only with highly specialised translations.

In order to know the exact price of the translation in advance, we suggest the Client sends the text for a free price estimation, allowing so to clear up all situations and commitments between the Client and the Agency.

For regular clients and bigger orders we grant discounts!

We answer all your requests within 3 hours of receiving them.
